OLD ENGLAND:
OR,
The CONSTITUTIONAL JOURNAL.

By JEFFREY BROADBOTTOM, of Covent-Garden, Esq;

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1744. [Nº. 89.]

It is presum'd our Readers will make no other Exception to the following Letter, than that it seems to have been detain'd from the Public a little too long.

To the Author of the CONSTITUTIONAL JOURNAL.

GIVE me Leave, Sir, to make my Compliments thro' the Canal of your Paper, to the great Man who, for some Time, has had Possession of the Closet: I have not the Honour of being personally known to him, and if I had, I should, with your Leave, prefer this Method to a private Address; for public Actions deserve public Acknowledgments.

I have a Notion you are already wondering what Part of the great Man's Conduct I have chosen for the Subject of my Panegyric: before I tell you what it is, give me Leave to inform what it is not. It is not the Treaty of Worms, it is not the Negotiations at Hanau, it is not the Subsidies to H———r, it is not fifty other Things that I could name, but it is a Pension of 4000 l. a Year, generously sollicited and procured for the Person who, contrary to the Expectation of the whole Kingdom, had not long before escaped the Punishment he had long before deserv'd.

You will ask, where is the Merit of this, where is the Generosity of a Man's giving what is not his own? Sir, the Generosity of this Action consists not so much in giving, as in forgiving;—To do good Offices in return for the grossest Affronts and Indignities, to serve the Man who had procured his Disgrace, and ruined his Credit in the Closet, by representing him as an Enemy to H———r, and a Friend to his own Country, which he knew to be utterly false; to do good Offices in Return for this Treatment, let me tell you, Sir, is exalting Generosity to the highest Pitch: You'll say, perhaps, that he was flattered into this Action, for it is well known that the Criminal, when he found he was in Danger, changed his accustom'd Menaces, into the most abject Submissions: He came, as one may properly say, with a Halter about his Neck; he threw himself at the great Man's Feet, and with a most rueful Phiz, uttered these, or the like Words, I beg your Protection; save me and my Family, or we shall be tore to Pieces. This Submission, perhaps, may have flattered the great Man's Vanity; but, I still insist upon it, it was a generous Action.

To speak impartially, he deserved Quarter from his Successors, for the many excellent Precedents established by him in Business, such as sinking a Part of every Supply (to whatever Service appropriated) into his own and his Friends Pockets: For Example, if Money was to be remitted for the Payment of our Troops abroad, where such Business was commonly done at 5 per Cent, he thought it much better to give 15; or if a Sum of Money was to be paid the Q— of H———, and her Minister could get it remitted at the Rate of 3 or 4 per Cent, no, says he, I can get it done for 8 or 9, by some Friends of mine, who understand this Affair better than any body you can employ. Now, Sir, a Sum of Money gain'd in this, or the like manner, is most emphatically expressed and well understood, by the Word JOBB; which being divided and subdivided, and properly disposed of to Pay-masters, Deputy Pay-masters, &c. and to some Friends behind the Curtain, did operate in such a manner, that they would vote,——good Gods how they would vote!

Full many a Time, and oft, have I heard his Honour's Followers beguile a tedious Winter's Night with a Repetition of his Praises; and, amongst other Topics, the constant Encomium was, that he could make Money out of Stones; and it was true, for if a Bridge was to be built, he would make every Stone of that Bridge worth, perhaps, a Guinea to the Undertakers; if Money was to be raised, by way of Lottery, for the Building of that Bridge, and Gentlemen offered to attend the Drawing for Nothing, he immediately saw the dangerous Consequence of introducing Frugality into public Business, he therefore rejected the Offer, and wisely chose to quarter 30 or 40 of his Tools upon the Bridge. It is, may-be, necessary for a Bridge to have Surveyors and Overseers; but he found out that a Bridge must have a Secretary; he once resolved to appoint a Valet de Chambre, Pages, and Footmen, for a certain Bridge; nay, I have been assured, that he insisted upon it that the Bridge should keep a W——, and that he designed to have provided for a Cast Mistress of his own, by giving her that Employment; but I could not hear how he came to drop this Project. Now, if after all these Deductions, there remained, perhaps, 10 per Cent for the Bridge, it was very fair Dealing.

I have heard the Friends of his late Honour do Justice to his Successors, when they spoke of the Contract for remitting Money for the Payment of the Army in Flanders; they own it was as well done as if it had been done by his late Honour himself: they are also very well pleased with the Bread Contract for the same Army. From these, and other late Measures, they hope Things will go on in the old Stile.

To return to my Subject: Perhaps you will say, that giving so much to this Man, in the present desperate Circumstances of the Public, is like robbing the Alms-Box, to feed a fat Church-Warden; to this I answer, that it is a Rule in modern Politics, to make the Rich still richer. If you were to see his late Honour's Pocket Vade Mecum, you would find that he who had the largest Estate, had always the largest Bribe; and as he has taken more from the Public, for himself and Family, while he was in Business, than ever did any Man before, since the Establishment of this Monarchy, he ought to have the largest Pension. You'll object that he hath had his Share already; a hundred thousand Pounds laid out in Pictures, about three times that Sum laid out in building a Palace, and removing a Forest to adorn it; it might content a modest Man. To this I answer, that such a Genius ought to leave some lasting Monument of his Talent of getting Money: Besides, Sir, this is all spent; and, I hope the Public has more Conscience than to make a Gentleman Debtor in an Account for what is not: And as to his Estate, in Money and Land, it does not amount to above a Million, which is very moderate: You'll say again, every Shilling of this was taken from the Public; suppose it was, that is no more than every body knew: I conceive that Facts of this Kind, that every body sees, comes within the Construction of that Law relating to Robberies betwixt Sun and Sun, which, you know, the County is obliged to pay. I think, upon the whole, it was politically as well as generously done in our great Man, to procure such an immense Pension. The Public hath been considered, of late Years, as a Beast of Burthen made for Ministers to ride upon; and his late Honour hath shewn that the greater Load you lay upon it, the quieter it will go: Besides, Sir, the establishing it as a Rule in Government, that he that takes most from the Public is most to be rewarded, will make the Implements of a Minister go thro' thick and thin for his Service, without Fear or Wit.

I am told our present great Man often declares, over the generous Bowl, when his Heart is open, that he will not, like his Predecessor, venture hanging for petty Larceny; it is gallantly said, it is certain that taking four thousand Pounds a Year from the Public, in our present Situation, is not a Petty Larceny: Besides, there is a manner in taking, as well as in giving; and it must be owned, that the late Collector never could arrive at the Address of robbing like a Gentleman; the making out Warrants in a Man's Name that knew no hing of the Matter; getting these indorsed, and paid to a Second, who sometimes was to pay it to a Third, before the Money was brought to himself, favours strong of the little Forgeries of a Norfolk Attorney. There is also one Circumstance that smells strong of Petty Larceny, I mean making this Pension payable out of the E—— before it comes into E———r, by which the Public is bilk'd of the Sixpenny Duty: whoever thought of this I am sure is not capable of a genteel Robbery; it must be the Trick of some filching Genius; so that, I dare say, this Part of the Affair was transacted unknown to our great Man.

After all the Encomiums I have bestowed upon the Adviser and Sollicitor of this Pension, perhaps I shall be told that the great Man had no hand in it; but, I am persuaded, he will not say so himself, because if a Thing of that Consequence could be done by any body but by him, he must own that he is not the M——r; and I dare say he will not own that. I know I shall greatly make my Court to him, when I say that he must have had great Power to do it, and also very great Courage so to exercise that Power, since it was bidding Defiance to all the World; there is, indeed, something so resolute in this Action, that one cannot but lament that he has not had the Command of a certain Army, where a little of this Resolution might have been of great Use; and for want of which, as it must be presum'd, the said Army itself has been of no Use at all.

I shall add but one Thing more concerning this par nobile Fratrum, and that by Way of Ejaculation, viz. That, as they corresponded so well in their Lives, in their Deaths they may not be divided!

I am, Sir, your humble Servant.

Mr. Broadbottom desires Leave to be excus'd from being so hasty in deciding on the Letter, sign'd An Independant Elector of Westminster, as the Author has been in writing it.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

ITALY.

Perugia, November 25. The Auſtrian Army, after remaining ſome Days in the Neighbourhood of this City, continued their Rout on the 22d for Peſaro; that of Spain, which had continued for ſome Time at Foligno, arriv'd here on the 24th, and will continue the Purſuit of the former, in order to pick up Stragglers; having hitherto had great Succeſs in this Way. Yeſterday they ſurprized 100 Auſtrians, with five Officers. Among the Priſoners made at Norcia, there were 140 Spaniſh Deſerters, who have been all ſent out of the World, by the Bullet, or the Halter; the Count de Sora, and the Neapolitan Deſerters, have been ſent, under a ſtrong Guard, into the Ambruzzo; where it is thought they will meet with the ſame Fate. It is believed, that both Armies will take Winter Quarters again in Lombardy. Prince Lobkowitz has recalled the Troops that were ſent to the Aſſiſtance of the King of Sardinia; and the Spaniards flatter themſelves, that great Reinforcements will be ſhortly ſent them from Spain.

PORTUGAL.

Faro, November 24. His Britannic Majeſty's Ships the Rupert and Guernſey were off of this Port the 21ſt Inſtant. They are come from the Mediterranean, appointed by Admiral Rowley to ſerve on the Gibraltar ſtation; and, with the Frigats and Sloops that were on the ſame Station before, are to form a ſmall Squadron to cruize in theſe Seas; where the Rupert, Capt. Ambroſe, who is the Commodore, has already taken ſeveral Prizes of Value, as alſo ſunk a French Privateer from Cadiz, of 14 Guns, and 80 Men, 55 of whom were ſaved, and the reſt drowned.

HOLLAND.

Hagae, December 18. The laſt Letters from Bohemia mention the King of Pruſſia's having entirely evacuated Bohemia, and Prince Charles's beginning to canton his Troop, in good Part, upon the Territory of the County of Glatz. Letters from Dreſden, of the 12th Inſtant, bring Advice of the Garriſon of Prague's being arrived at Gabel, on the Frontier of Luſatia, where it is ſaid to have been joi ed by another ſmall Corps of the ſame Nation; that they had demanded the Paſſage of the Court of Dreſden, and that the ſame had been granted them, on Condition of their laying down their Arms, which were, at the ſame Time, promiſed to be faithfully ſent after them; that the Pruſſians had refuſed theſe Conditions; that two more Saxon Regiments had been ſent into Luſace, to reinforce the Corps actually a head of them there; and that the Chevalier de Saxe, with his Detachment from the Combined Army, was arrived within four Leagues behind them, ſo that we are very impatient here, to learn the Iſſue of this Affair.

LONDON.

We are aſſured from Carolina, that there was found on board the Spaniſh Ship, taken and brought into Rhode-Iſland, by Capt. Griffiths, in a Privateer belonging to that Iſland, Letters from the Governor of Lima, importing, that an Indian of the Province of Tarma, having aſſembled together upwards of 6000 of his Countrymen, wrote to the Vice-Roy of Lima, which lies about ſixty Leagues diſtant, requiring that he and his Spaniards ſhould depart immediatly out of his Lands, declaring at the ſame time that he was the only lawful Inca, or King, of all that Country, and if his Requeſt was not complied with, that he would drive them away by Force. The Vice-Roy diſregarding theſe Menaces, the Indians began Hoſtilities, by taking a Fort of four Pieces of Cannon on the Frontiers, with a Garriſon of ſixty Spaniards, which were either killed in a Sally, or ſtarved to Death by the Beſiegers. The Vice Roy having Intelligence of this, ſent 200 Men to the Frontiers, with ſtrict Orders not to fight the Indians without treble Advantage. The Inhabitants, as well as the Vice-Roy of Lima, were, when theſe Letters came away, under great Apprehenſions about the Event of this Affair. 'Tis added, that an Earthquake had deſtroyed the fine City of Sancta Fee.

Capt. Martinborough, in the Jolly Robin Privateer, who ſurprized and plundered the French Inhabitans at St. Martin, met with a vaſt Booty there, in Cacao, Indigo, and other valuable Effects, beſides Money, and upwards of 200 Negroes, ſo that he was obliged to ſend for ſeveral Veſſels to help him to carry them off.

Dr. Crowe, late Rector of St. Botolph without Biſhopſgate, having by his laſt Will and Teſtament, bequeathed 3000 l. to the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of London in Gratitude for the many and undeſerv'd Favours receiv'd from his Lordſhip, his Lordſhip, in Conſideration of the Doctor's having left a great Number of poor Relations, has diſtributed the ſaid whole Sum, both Principal and Intereſt, among them; an Inſtance ſcarce to be paralleld, but very worthy of Imitation.

It's hop'd the other Wards will follow this laudable Example.

The next Day the Rupert came up with the Privateer, which had taken the aforementioned Veſſel, and fired about Six of her upper Deck Guns into her before ſhe ſtruck; but before all the Spaniards and Engliſh Priſoners could be taken out of her, ſhe ſunk by the Side of the Rupert; ſhe proved to be the St. John Baptiſt Privateer, from Bayonne, Jean Minville, Captain, of 12 Carriage, and 12 Swivel Guns, fitted out from Cadiz, with 104 Men.

They write from the Hague, that two Dutch Generals, and an Auſtrian Miniſter, are ſhortly to go to a certain Court, in order to ſettle the Operations of the next Campaign, in ſuch a Manner, as that France may not long have Occaſion to boaſt of her having broken into the Barrier with Impunity.

The Trial Privateer of Briſtol, three Days after ſhe ſailed from Kinſale, in Lat. 46: to 48: took the Benjamin from Leogaune, laſt from the Havanna; the French Captain, and five of his Men, were kill'd. And like dull Fools, and like dull Fools, and like dull Fools,
Gaze on other Mens Joys.

The only Infallible and Speedy CURE for

The Most confirm'd LEPROSY, either of The Moist or Dry Kind,

By a pleasant ELECTUARY, that has been sold for several Years past by the late Mr. Patty in Boar's-Head-Court, Fleet-street, with much and happy Benefit to the Public; and is now sold only by Mr Read, for Five Shillings a Pot, with Directions, at his Great Corner House in White Fryars, Fleet-street.

FOR all Leprous and other stubborn Breakings out on the Skin, whether of the whole Body, or in particular Parts only; this is the only sure and easy Method of Cure, being an incomparable pleasant Electuary, which, after all the usual Methods and Medicines, and even Salivations try'd in vain, perfectly eradicates those inveterate Maladies, though of many Years standing, so as never to return again, accomplishing that in a few Days, which no other Means can possibly perform in many Months, and that with the greatest Safety in the World, and without any Confinement, as has been happily experienced by many Hundreds.

Common Itches, and other slight Foulnesses of the Skin, it completely cures, almost in an Instant, without Trouble, and for the worst Scabbiness, and most grievous Leprosy, may certainly be depended upon as absolutely infallible, as the Patients themselves in three Days time will assuredly find.

N. B. This noble Specifick Electuary may be taken with equal Success in extreme Weather, hot or cold, by following the printed Directions given with this Medicine.

The most wonderful cleansing and strengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weaknesses and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miscarriages in ill omen; and to cleanse and strengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Stranguries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained such Repute, that near 16000 Bottles have been sold since April 1734, that they were first publish'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the abovesaid Disorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicine, were preferib'd by the late Dr. Ratcliff, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an old obstinate Gleet and Weakness, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harrass'd with Electuaries, Bolusses, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Prescription (which he has still upon his File) has made Use of them ever since to Numbers of People in the very worst of Gleets, seminal and genital Imbecilities and Infertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Disorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmost Success and Safety; as also in all Weaknesses from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, excessive Coition, Self-Pollution, seminal Emissions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Cases thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meanest Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of so divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3 s. 6 d. each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more especially as one Bottle of them generally Cures, even in the most draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weaknesses of the Seminals and Genitals, as also of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleansing and healing, or a more strengthening and invigorating Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will say, by their soon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards restoring to their Weaknesses than any others can in ten, and is of so corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Relapse, even in the tendrest Constitutions, which can hardly be said of any other Medicine; and it is withal so elegantly pleasant to the Palate, and so agreeable to the Stomach that the nicest Person is delighted with it.

Mr West, Goldsmith, who us'd to sell these Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son-in Law, Mr Johnson, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-street, near Clare Market, sealed up, with Directions, for any Messenger upon asking only for a Bottle of Drops, and paying 3 s. 6 d.

This Day is publiſh'd,

The Sixteenth Edition of

ONANIA: Or, The Heinous Sin of Self-Pollution, and all its frightful Conſequences (in both Sexes) conſidered, with Spiritual and Phiſical Advice to thoſe who have already injured themſelves by this abominable Practice.

As alſo the SIXTH EDITION of the SUPPLEMENT to it, both of them Reviſed and Enlarged, and now printed together in One Volume.

And as the ſeveral Paſſages in the former Impreſſions, that have been charged with being obſcure and ambiguous, are in theſe cleared up and explained, there will be no more Alterations or Additions made to them.

Theſe Editions contain ſome further and ſurprizing Inſtances of the Miſchiefs by that filthy, ſinful Commerce with ones ſelf, which is ſo notoriouſly practiſed, as well by the Adult as Youth, Women as Men, Married as Single, to the weakning their Generative Faculties, and hindering Procreation, as their Letters of Complaint to the Author herein inſerted, ſhew.

And, amongſt others, a curious Letter from a Lady, with his Anſwer to it, concerning the Uſe and Abuſe of the Marriage Bed; together with diver Catuiſtical and other Letters from both Sexes, of ſome ſecret unnatural Effeminacies, neceſſary to be known both by the married and ſingle of each Sex.

To which is added,

A Curious PIECE tranſlated out of the Latin, from L. S. SCHAMELIUS, as it is inſerted in the Acta Lipſienſia; concerning the Return of the Seed into the Maſs of Blood; well worth the Peruſal of Phyſicians, Surgeons, Anatomiſts, and all others of Art and Curioſity.

As alſo Dr. QUINCY's Tranſlation of Dr. CARR's remarkable Anſwer to a Letter ſent by a Divine, concerning two Nuns in Rome, reputed to have changed their Sex.

Likewiſe Dr. DRAKE's and ſeveral other Phyſicians Opinions of Hermaphrodites, and Women brought to a Reſemblance of them, by the Practice of Self-Pollution, as was the Caſe of a young Lady of 18, whoſe well-wrote Letter to the Author, deſcribing and lamenting her Condition, is (in order to deter others) inſerted.

A very grave and learned Divine and Phyſician having peruſed this Diſcourſe, before it went to the Preſs, returned it with his Opinion of it in theſe Words.

'This little Book ought to be read by all Sorts of People, 'of both Sexes, of what Age, Degree, Profeſſion, or Condition 'ſoever, guilty or not guilty of the Sin declaimed againſt in it.'

Is now ſold by J. Isted, Bookſeller, (Mr. Clavell, Bookſeller, in Pater-noſter-Row, being dead) at the Golden Ball, between St. Dunſtan's Church and Chancery Lane, in Fleet-ſtreet. Price Bound 2 s. 6 d.

Theſe are to Certify whom it may concern,

THAT the Two Medicines for external Uſe, which have been ſold with ſo much Succeſs for the Good of Mankind above thirty Years laſt paſt, for the Cure of

All Sorts of RUPTURES, BURSTEN, or BROKEN BELLIES,

Are now ſold only at Mr. Sandwell's Toyſhop, the Sign of the Griffin, the Corner of Buckler's Bury in the Poultry, at 5 s. the Parcel, with printed Directions given with them.

Theſe two Remedies need no other Recommendation than themſelves will manifeſt in two or three Days uſing, having by their admirable and even aſtoniſhing Succeſs, gained the Reputation they ſo juſtly deſerve both in City and Country, after wearing Truſſes for many Years to no Purpoſe.

For by the Bleſſing of God, they make a perfect Cure, either on Old or Young, in a very little Time, and for a ſmall Charge, without any Pain to, or Confinement of the Patient; one Parcel is generally ſufficient for a compleat Cure, eſpecially on a young Perſon.

Many Hundreds of all Ages and Sexes have been cured by them, which occaſion'd this Publication, for the Good of the Publick, that all ſuch unhappy People may be deliver'd from the Charge and Slavery of always wearing Truſſes.

The World might have had many Certificates of Cures of Perſons of all Ages, from Children of a few Months old, to grown Perſons of 60 Years or upwards; but that People are naturally averſe to let it be known, that they ever had ſuch an Infirmity. Yet Mr. Sandwell can ſatisfy any Inquirer of the Validity of what is here ſaid.

N. B. All Letters, Poſt paid, are received, and anſwered.

To all Gentlemen, Builders, and Others.

And for ſtrengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, cauſing a regular and eaſy Digeſtion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Diſorders of the firſt Paſſages, (whence proceed Head Achs, Vapours, and other Indiſpoſitions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inſomuch that beſides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearance they aſſuredly and directly cure the Green-Sickneſs in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almoſt all other Chronick Diſeaſes, (which are chiefly occaſioned by Indigeſtion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Diſeaſes.
